A. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

I. Composition

The present Board is headed by the Chairman, and comprises:-

- 2 Executive Directors;
- 1 Non-Independent Non-Executive Director; and
- 3 Independent Non-Executive Directors.

This composition complies with the ACE Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad whereby the Company must have at least two (2) Directors or one-third (1/3) of the Board, whichever is higher, who are Independent Directors.

In the event of any vacancy in the Board resulting in the non-compliance with the above, the Company must fill the vacancy within three (3) months. The Board is of the opinion that the interests of shareholders of the Company are fairly represented by the current Board composition and its size constitutes an effective Board of the Company.

II. Board Balance

The Board's composition represents members from diverse disciplines, tapping on their respective qualifications and experiences in business, commercial, finance and legal aspects. The Directors, with their wide spectrum of experience, skills and knowledge give added strength to the leadership which is necessary for the effective stewardship of the Group.

The presence of the at least two (2) Independent Non-Executive Directors is essential in providing guidance, unbiased, fully balanced and independent views, advice and judgement to many aspects of the Group's strategy so as to safeguard the interests of minority shareholders and to ensure that high standards of conduct and integrity are maintained by the Group.

III. Board Responsibilities

The Board's principal duty is to act in the best interests of the Group and its shareholders and is ultimately responsible for the performance of the Group. In carrying out this pivotal role, the Board assumes the following specific responsibilities:

- Reviewing and adopting strategic plans for the Group;
- Overseeing the conduct of the Group's business to evaluate whether the business is being properly managed;
- Identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks;
- Succession planning including appointing, training, fixing the compensation of and, where appropriate, replacing senior management;
- Developing and implementing an investor relation programme or shareholder communication policy for the Company; and

- Reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the Group's internal control systems and management information systems, including systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines.

The Group practises a division of responsibilities between the Non-Independent Non-Executive Chairman and the Executive Directors. Their roles are separated and clearly defined to ensure a balance of power and authority.

The Chairman is responsible for the Board's effectiveness and conduct whilst the Executive Directors are in charge of the day-to-day operations of the business, making strategic business decision and implementing Board policies.

The roles of the Independent Non-Executive Directors are to ensure that strategies proposed by the Executive Directors and management are fully reviewed and examined. No individual dominates the Board's decision making. The Board reserves appropriate strategic, financial and organisational matters for its collective decision.

The Board has not nominated a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director to whom concerns may be conveyed as the Board is of the opinion that given the strong independent element of the Board, any concern regarding the Group may be conveyed by shareholders or investors to any of the Independent Directors and such concerns will be reviewed and addressed by the Board accordingly.

IV. Board Meetings

The Board governs the operations of the Group. The Board meets regularly, at least once every quarter and with additional meetings held as necessary to formulate and adopt strategic business plan for the Group, to evaluate the impact of risks affecting the operations of the Group and to formulate appropriate risk management systems.

All proceedings of the Board meetings are minuted.

V. Supply of Information

Prior to each Board meeting, an agenda together with the relevant documents and information are distributed to all Directors. All Directors, whether as a full Board or in their individual capacity have access to all information of the Group on a timely basis in an appropriate form and quality necessary to enable them to discharge their duties and responsibilities. In exercising their duties, the Directors have access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary and are also entitled to obtain professional opinions or advice from external consultants when the need arises. The Directors will appoint as secretary, someone who is capable of carrying out the duties to which the post entails, and his removal should be a matter for the Board as a whole. The Chairman of the Board is entitled to the strong and positive support of the Company Secretary in ensuring the effective functioning of the Board.

Periodic briefings on the industry outlook and Group performance are also conducted for the Directors to ensure that the Board is well informed on the Group's operational, financial and corporate issues.

VI. Board Committees

The Board, in discharging its fiduciary duties, is assisted by the four (4) Board Committees, namely Audit Committee, Nominating Committee, Remuneration Committee and Risk Management Committee each entrusted with specific tasks and operates within clearly defined terms of reference approved by the Board.

All Board Committees shall report to the Board and the Board retains the overall responsibility for monitoring activities undertaken by the Board Committees.

a) Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is tasked to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its fiduciary responsibilities relating to accounting and reporting practices, and systems of internal control of the Group.

The roles and responsibilities of the Committee are stipulated as follows:

- a. To recommend the nomination of and to consider the appointment or re-appointment of the external auditors, the audit fee and questions of resignation or dismissal;
- b. To discuss with the external auditors before the annual audit commences, the nature and scope of the audit plan;
- c. To discuss with the external auditors problems and reservations arising from the final and any interim audits, evaluation of the system of internal controls and any matters the external auditors may wish to discuss including assistance given by the employees of the

1. Such other functions as may be agreed by the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors.

b) Nominating Committee

The Nomination Committee was established to assist the Board in recommending appointment of new Directors and assessing the effectiveness of the Board.

The role and responsibilities of the Nominating Committee are as follows:

- to identify and recommend to the Board suitable candidates for appointment to the Board and Board Committees. In making its recommendations, the Committee should consider the candidates' skills, knowledge, expertise and experience; professionalism; integrity; and in the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the Committee should also evaluate the candidates' ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as expected from Independent Non-Executive Directors;
- to assess the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, its Committees and the contribution of each Director, including Independent Non-Executive Directors on an annual basis;
- to review regularly the Board structure, size and composition and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any adjustments that are deemed necessary;
- to consider in making its recommendations, candidates for directorships proposed by senior executive or any director or shareholder;
- to assist the Board in its annual review of its required mix of skills and experience and other qualities, including core competencies which Non-Executive Directors should bring to the Board; and
- to recommend to the Board for continuation (or not) in service of Executive Director(s) and Directors who are due for retirement by rotation.

The Board is entitled to the services of a company secretary who must ensure that all appointments are properly made, that all necessary information is obtained from Directors, both for the Company's own records and for the purposes of meeting statutory obligations, as well as obligations arising from the ACE Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad and other regulatory requirements.

Re-election of Directors

In accordance with the Company's Articles of Association, all Directors are subject to re-election by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting following their appointment. At least one-third (1/3) of the remaining Directors shall retire from office at each Annual General Meeting at least once in every three (3) years, but shall be eligible for re-election.

Directors' Training

The Board of Directors will assume the onus of determining or overseeing the training needs for Directors. In this respect, the Directors are encouraged to attend various external professional programmes deemed necessary in order to keep abreast with the latest developments in the market place, advances in corporate governance and to further enhance their skill and knowledge to enable them to discharge their duties as Directors in an effective manner.

c) Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee is responsible for recommending to the Board on the remuneration framework as well as the remuneration package of Executive Directors to ensure that rewards commensurate with their contributions to the Group's growth and profitability in order to align the interest of the Directors with those of the shareholders. The Committee also ensures the level of remuneration for Non-Executive Directors and Executive Directors are linked to their level of responsibilities undertaken and contribution to the effective functioning of the Board.

The Company's remuneration policy for Directors is formulated to attract and retain individuals of the necessary calibre needed to run the business of the Group successfully. The remuneration is structured to link experience, expertise and level of responsibility undertaken by the Directors. The Directors play no part in deciding their own remuneration and shall abstain from discussing or voting on their own remuneration.

d) Risk Management Committee

The Risk Management Committee (RMC) is formed to closely monitor the Group's risk profile. The RMC will review and recommend to the Board the type and level of business risks of LNG Group and the appropriate framework and policies for managing such risks. The RMC reviewed and assessed the Group's Risk Register on quarterly basis and tabled the details RMC report to the AC and the Board on half yearly basis.

The main functions and duties of the RMC shall include, but are not limited to:

- (i) Provide oversight, direction and counsel to the Group risk management process which includes:
